

The Late Mrs Jeyarany Pararajasingham

Birth: 28 December 1928

Demise: 25 April 2010

Mrs Jeyarany Pararajasingham was born to Mr & Mrs Sinathurai of Kaladdy Vannarpannai, Sri Lanka. She was the fourth child amongst seven siblings. She was educated at Mt Lavinia Girls' School in Colombo, and later at Vembadi Girls' High School in Jaffna.

In 1949, she married Dr Vinayagamoorthy Pararajasingham, a renowned Dental Surgeon in Sri Lanka. They were blessed with 6 children – Suseela, Jeyadevan (late), Subathra, Shanthikumar, Sulochana and Sulekha. They had a fulfilling life in Sri Lanka. She was a keen cook and always took delight in experimenting with new recipes. She also took a keen interest in the arts, music and dance, and imparted this to her children.

She enjoyed travelling with her husband to visit their children, who live in Australia, Singapore and the UK. Unfortunately, over the last 2 years, her physical strength had declined. Nevertheless, her mind remained strong, and she was always interested in the well-being of her children and grandchildren. Over, the last fortnight, her health took a turn for the worse. She passed away in London, on 25 April 2010 surrounded by her family.
