

Mrs. Annammah SINNATHURAI
413/252

Birth: 16 May 1920

Demise: 11 April 2010

Mrs Annammah Sinnathurai was born on 16 May 1920 in Saravanai, Velanai Jaffna, the fourth child of Mr Kasinathar and Mrs Seethevipillai. She had two brothers Kandiah and Nagendran, and three sisters Sellammah, Nagamuthu and Ponnammah. She was educated at Nageswari Vidyasalai, Velanai, where she received her primary and secondary education

Her parents arranged her marriage to Sinnathamby Sinnathurai and her wedding took place in 1941. She was blessed with four children, one boy and three girls - Kamalathevy (Canada), Pushparani (Vavuniya, Sri Lanka), Shanmukanathan (Sydney) and Selvarani (Germanay). She lived in Saravanai and Colombo until 1996 when she moved to Australia to live with her son and his family.

She helped in bringing up her grandchildren, Nalini, Prasanna, Sugantha, Raveendran, Mahenthiran and Siventhiran and always enjoyed looking after them. She always took pleasure in identifying herself with the activities of The Sri Aiyappan Thevasthanam in Sydney. She enthusiastically participated in the Bajans and Poojas conducted by the Aiyappan congregation of Sydney

She was admitted to a nursing home and in the past week was transferred to hospital where she passed away peacefully on 11 April 2010 with her son by her side.

The Tamil Senior Citizens' Association and the Benevolent Society deeply grieve the death of Mrs Annammah Sinnathurai and pray that her soul Rests in Peace
